

THE GRADUATE STUDENT GUIDEBOOK

FROM ORIENTATION TO TENURE TRACK

THE AEJMC BOARD OF DIRECTORS
EDITED BY KATHERINE A. FOSS

Graduate school is an important and confusing time, filled with many questions about the inner-workings of academia and decisions students must make about their futures. In the current academic climate, initial decisions—like choosing an advisor—critically shape future opportunities. Students need a consistent, reliable, and up-to-date resource.

In this authoritative guide, faculty from various universities, positions, and backgrounds respond to concerns identified by graduate student members themselves. Moving through the text, readers learn about the transition from undergrad to graduate-level expectations, special considerations for students of marginalized groups, graduate assistantships, the importance of key decisions, comprehensive exams, writing the thesis or dissertation, publishing, conferences, navigating the job search, and making a career in a tenure track position.
