Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Pre-Conference Workshop

Women Faculty Moving Forward: The Future is Female

Tuesday, August 2, 2022, Detroit

Sponsored by the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women, the Lillian Lodge Kopenhaver Center for the Advancement of Women in Communication at Florida International University and the AEJMC Council of Affiliates, this tenth annual workshop is designed to help junior women faculty members move forward in their careers through mentoring, networking and preparing for tenure and promotion and administration or other leadership positions. It is designed for tenure-track women, but some exceptions may be made. We are seeking a cohort for our pre-conference workshop on August 2, 2022, 1-5 p.m. at the AEJMC annual conference in Detroit. Applicants must be AEJMC members.

Speakers, panelists and roundtable leaders include senior scholars and administrators and amazing women colleagues who have achieved significant leadership positions in their careers. Keynote speaker for the workshop is Lucy A. Dalglish, dean of the Philip Merrill College of Journalism, Maryland, and Scripps Howard Administrator of the Year for 2021; Jennifer Vardeman, director of the Jack Valenti School of Communication, Houston; Kathleen McElroy, director of the School of Journalism, Texas at Austin; Erika Engstrom, director of the School of Journalism, Kentucky; Young Volz, faculty group chair, Journalism Studies, Missouri; and Meta Carstarphen, Gaylord Family Professor/Strategic Communication, Oklahoma.

In addition to the training and networking at this workshop, participants, who will be designated Kopenhaver Center Fellows, will be invited to take part in activities of both the CSW and the Kopenhaver Center during the year and receive communications and invitations from both groups. They will also be invited to reunite with new and previous Fellows in a networking session following the workshop at each conference each year.
