Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC)

Presidential Proclamation on the 50th Anniversary of the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women

Congratulations to the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women for 50 years of leadership:

WHEREAS the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women advocates for women and seeks to balance inequities in our professional and academic fields; and

WHEREAS the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women fosters deeper understanding of gender and communication, feminist theory, and activism in our democracy; and

WHEREAS the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women recognizes the contributions of its members and mentors a new generation of dedicated scholars; and

WHEREAS the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women nurtures critical learning, research, teaching, and service opportunities for all AEJMC members; and

WHEREAS our AEJMC Community is robust because of the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women’s leadership, thoughtful advocacy, and excellence in scholarship.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DEB AIKAT, 2022-23 AEJMC President, on behalf of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, do hereby offer hearty congratulations on the 50th anniversary of the AEJMC Commission on the Status of Women.

PROCLAIMED this 24th day of July 2023.

Deb Aikat
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
2022-2023 AEJMC President